

Brooks School Welcomes New Girls Basketball Coach: Benjamin Chase

NORTH ANDOVER — Brooks School is proud to announce the hiring of Benjamin Chase as the new Head Coach of the girls 1st (varsity) basketball team. Coach Chase brings to Brooks more than a decade of coaching basketball at the college level, most notably at Army West Point, Boston University and Houston Christian University.

An Academic All-American and four-year letter winner at Emerson College, Chase teaches Sport Psychology at the University of New Hampshire and runs High Perception Hoops, a basketball training organization focused on developing basketball IQ and decision-making skills.

“The standard of excellence in basketball, academics and character at Brooks, and in the girls’ basketball program in particular, is incredibly high,” said Chase. “I look forward to the challenge of maintaining that legacy.”

- Learn more about Chase and his goals for the girls basketball team in the news story of his hiring on Brooks School’s website.
- For more information, please contact Director of Digital Communications Jennifer O’Neill at joneill@brooksschool.org.

Located 30 miles north of Boston, Brooks is an independent, coeducational, college preparatory boarding and day school for students in grades 9 through 12 established in 1926. Approximately 340 students attend school on the 270-acre campus overlooking Lake Cochichewick. With a challenging academic curriculum that includes internship programs in medicine and technology, Brooks also offers opportunities to study in Africa, Europe and South America. The school’s exceptional athletic program has earned numerous league and New England championships.

Visit brooksschool.org and follow Brooks School on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter to see the projects, activities and happenings in our community each day.