Easter Festivities

This Sunday is Easter, and we'd love to support anyone who would like to observe this special Christian holy day. There will be a 10 a.m. celebration service open to all young children (Director of Spiritual Life Julie Mavity Maddalena will have activity packets for them) in the Frank D. Ashburn Chapel, followed by an Easter egg hunt for the kiddos. (The egg hunt for Brooks students is at 1 p.m.).

No School Monday

April 17 is a School Holiday. There is no school; boarders return by 8 p.m.

Sixth-Form Parents Dinner Is Thursday

Are you coming to the Dinner and Slideshow on April 20 from 6-8 p.m. in the Frick Dining Hall? There's still time to RSVP: Email Jennifer Chiampa.

Dancing Makes You Hungry!

Thank you to the 18 families that have volunteered to bring something for our 215+ prom attendees to eat when they return from the Andover Country Club. Please let Erica Callahan know if you can donate something - you can bring the treats when you come to the Frick to take pictures on April 23 at 4:00 p.m.

Student Activities This Weekend

Does Your Child Need a Work Permit?

Brooks School does not meet the criteria, nor has the authority, to furnish work permits to students. Click here for the Minor Employment Permit Process, and visit OnBrooks for links to details and forms for MA, NH, CT, NJ and NY: Click Groups -> Community Information -> Topics -> Student Work Permits.

Save The Date & Stay Tuned

The Walk for Hunger is on May 7 in Boston. Brooks' third-formers are coordinating a group of interested students this year. Stay tuned for ways that parents can get involved!

College Counseling: School Fair

Members of the College Counseling Office will be taking students to the Phillips Academy College Fair on April 24 from 5 - 7 p.m. Juniors are expected to attend. Buses will depart from the student center at 5:30 p.m. and return to Brooks at 7 p.m. Click here to see the full list of participating colleges.

Yearbook Questions?
