Upcoming College Fairs

On April 28 from 5:30 to 7 p.m., representatives from more than 100 colleges will be at Merrimack College in North Andover for the annual Boston Independent School College Counselors Association (BISCCA)'s college fair. Similarly, on April 29 from 5 to 7 p.m., there will be another college fair at Phillips Academy in Andover. Unfortunately, the BISCCA fair falls on the same day as Brooks' prom. While neither fair is a required event, we encourage students to take advantage of these opportunities. We will provide transportation to/from the events for our boarding students. These are always worthwhile events, particularly for fifth-formers as they work to complete their summer list in meetings with their college counselor. If your student is interested and needs transportation, please have them contact Assistant College Counselor Christine Jackson or stop by the College Office to sign up.
