Farewell, graduates! Read all about the class of 2019's big weekend in our news story on brooksschool.org.

Congratulations, Class of 2019!

Last weekend was a busy one at Brooks! Visit our Class of 2019 page to watch videos of our three student speakers, see the list of prize winners and new prefects, and click through to view hundreds of photos from the Lawn Ceremony and Prize Day. More images will be available from our photographer in about a week. An email will be sent out with the link to view, download and order prints.

A Message from the Business Office

Reminder: May/June charges (including exam fees, dry cleaning, lesson fees, etc.) will not be billed through Smart Tuition until June/July. Please be aware that these amounts are due, and payable, through Smart Tuition when you are billed.

Summer Registration Information

Summer registration forms for all students (including forms for permissions and for the Health & Wellness Center) will be available for completion in mid-June. An email will go out with deadlines and instructions once the forms are released. If you have any questions or need assistance, please contact Registrar Lisa Saunders.

Looking Ahead to the Next School Year . . .

Fall varsity athletic candidates, selected orientation leaders and returning international students arrive on campus on Sept. 3. There will be practice sessions for varsity teams happening on that day. All other students arrive on Sept. 4, when there will be orientation events and opening-of-school activities. A detailed schedule will be available in mid-June.

Book Store Summer Hours

Brooks' school store will be open during the summer: Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
