

The opening reception at the Robert Lehman Art Center featuring six original works by Andy Warhol. The exhibit will be open over Parents Weekend.

---

Brooks Together: Parents Step Up, Thank You!

Thanks to a successful launch, Brooks Together is only three weeks in, and we have raised more than $228,000! Congratulations to all who are already wearing their silver Brooks Together pins this week. Click here to make a gift today. Email Lisa Zopatti: lzopatti@brooksschool.org to make a pledge of support.

---

...And Another Thank You

Sending out a huge thank you to those parents who baked or bought treats and helped at the Game Day Hospitality Tent on Saturday. The feedback from our students, fans and visitors was fabulous and made us all proud to have welcomed everyone to enjoy the bounty.

---

Student Activities This Weekend

Click here for the full schedule, including a block party hosted by sixth-formers.

---

Parents Weekend

Please register promptly so that we can make all the appropriate arrangements to ensure that your weekend is wonderful! For the full schedule of events -- including speaker Dr. Derrick Gay, who will talk about ways to foster empathy and inclusion -- click here.

---

Parent Volunteers Needed

Will you help us decorate campus for Parents Weekend? Please email Erica

Did You Know...?

...that Oct. 20 is the National Day on Writing? Or that Brooks has an online literary magazine called Still Waters? The Brooks Writing Center is hosting an open house to celebrate the Day on Writing Oct. 20, and is always available as a resource for students seeking help on papers.

---

CWRA Testing

A random sample of third-formers (day and boarding) is expected to take the College Work and Readiness Assessment Oct. 18. Associate Head for Academic Affairs Lance Latham will notify those involved. Selected students will meet at the Luce Library at 6:50 p.m. Testing will be completed by 9:00 p.m. Students are not expected to prepare for the CWRA, conducted online with school computers. Contact Lance Latham: llatham@brooksschool.org with any questions.

---

Parents Independent School Network College Panel: All Welcome

On Oct. 18 at 6:30 p.m. at Newton Country Day School, deans of admission from Bates College, University of Richmond and the New England regional dean from the University of Denver will help us understand what happens in the admissions process with a focus on the college essay, being specialized versus more well-rounded, the new SAT and supporting students through the process.

---

Vacation Transportation Options

At the start of major breaks (Thanksgiving, Winter and March), Brooks makes available chaperoned transportation to Logan Airport (the beginning of break only, $40) and to Connecticut/New York City. Buses typically depart at noon the day of break. Students may sign up for these buses in the Deans' Office by completing the transportation form well in advance of break. Costs are charged to a student's account. Click here for the full schedule and all details.

---

Flu Shots

There are still more than 100 students who are signed up to get a flu shot who haven't received one yet. Please touch base with your child and have them contact the Health and Wellness Center to schedule it: health@brooksschool.org.

---

What a Great Photo!

Do you follow Brooks on Instagram? You should! @brooksschool shares new shots from campus of students, activities and events every day. Check it out here, and, as always, visit the frequently-updated www.brooksschoolphotos.com. Images are shareable and available to order as prints.

---

School Store Special

Is it your child's birthday? Did she score a winning goal? Or maybe you just want to surprise him with a treat. Click here for the Gifts from Home program.