

Brooks School Schedule 2020 – 2021

Continuous Learning Plan (CLP)

Winter Calendar (January – March 2021)

Core Principles:

- The schedule remains the same for on-campus, concurrent and fully online learning. (In the event of fully online learning, all lunch-block classes will meet in the first half of the block, leaving the second half of the block free for lunch.)
- The schedule prioritizes the physical health and mental wellness of the Brooks community in a range of time zones.
- The schedule prioritizes community engagement through Chapel, advisory, club, affinity and school meeting times.
- The schedule prioritizes best teaching and learning practices with dedicated small-group skills instruction.
- The schedule maintains our commitment to providing students with a meaningful educational experience through an individual academic schedule that meets them where they are.

Highlights:

- Each course has four scheduled class meetings each week. Students are scheduled into three out of the four class meetings.
- For each course, students attend two Concurrent class meetings and one smaller Skills class meeting per week.
- The fourth class meeting is a free for the student and will not appear in their OnBrooks schedule.
- Each student will meet with their teacher three times per week. Ideally, at least two meetings will take place in person for on-campus students.

- Example: A student is scheduled to take English in A block. They will meet for Concurrent classes with their entire class on Monday morning and Friday morning, once in person and once online. They will be assigned to a Skills class on either Wednesday morning or Wednesday afternoon, and they will have a free period during the other Skills class.

Revisions from Fall Schedule:

- The academic schedule follows a five-day week.
- Community and advisory times are spread out more consistently across the week.
- The academic day extends past lunch on Wednesday to end at 2:15 p.m.
- The academic day ends earlier, at 2:15 p.m., on Friday.
